PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED DURING MARCH-APRIL

BULLETIN OF THE MONTH

How to buy canned and frozen vegetables
Home and Garden Bulletin No. 167

This slightly revised bulletin gives valuable information on how to purchase canned and frozen vegetables. It gives general tips on uses of different grades (USDA) and styles of vegetables. The last section of the bulletin is a consumer's guide to a large number of vegetables, including beans, beets, broccoli, cabbage, corn, okra, onions, peas, squash, and tomatoes. For each, differences in grade and style are explained.

NOTE: Single copies of publications other than those listed FOR SALE ONLY may be obtained free as long as the supply permits from the Office of Governmental and Public Affairs, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250. Prices are given for the convenience of persons desiring to purchase these publications in quantities and for those who make frequent purchases of government publications. Remittances should be sent to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402, except as otherwise noted.

FARMERS' BULLETINS

Strawberry diseases. (F 2140) 27 p. $1.10.

Strawberries are attacked by many diseases which varies widely in their destructiveness and distribution. This revised bulletin describes the types of diseases that attack the whole strawberry plant and those that attack various parts of the plant. It gives symptoms of the diseases, and information on prevention and control.

HOME AND GARDEN BULLETINS

Controlling wasps. (G 122) 7 p. 60c.

This revised bulletin describes the types of nests built by different types of wasps; gives instructions on first aid after a wasp sting; describes and characterizes the four stages of development that wasps pass through; gives general instructions on how to control wasps with insecticides. The final section differentiates the bee from the wasp, and names the most common types of bees.

How to buy canned and frozen vegetables. (G 167) 23 p. 45c.

See Bulletin of the Month.

How to buy dairy products. (G 201) 15 p. 35c.

This revision explains how to buy and use dairy products and how to use USDA grades in buying. Tips are given on eight different kinds of milk and five kinds of cream. Information on grades of butter and cheese is also included.

LEAFLETS

The old house borer. (L 501) 5 p. 35c.

The old house borer can cause severe damage to buildings in the Eastern United States. This slightly revised leaflet describes the different states the insect passes through during its life, physical characteristics of the insect, where it lays its eggs, how much damage it can cause, and measures that can be taken to control infestation.

Constructing an effective anticyote electric fence. (L 565) 6 p. 50c.

This anticyote electric fence has proved effective in protecting sheep from coyotes. Past attempts at coyote proof fencing were not successful because only charged wires were used. Intruders were not grounded when touching the wires and could not receive a shock. This new electric fence alternates electrified and ground wires from top to bottom, making it impossible for a coyote to avoid simultaneous contact with a charged and a ground wire. This publication makes recommendations for fence design, wire, posts, and power to be used in the construction of the electric fence.
